VOL. 2.—NO. 49

Democratic Platform of 1849.

The following resolutions were adopted by a convention of the Democracy of the counties of Fayette and Union, held in Brownsville, on the 30th day of June, 1849:

Resolved, That we do unhesitatingly condemn the course pursued by the late Representative in Congress from this district upon the Gott resolution, and that in principle and policy we are IN FAVOR OF THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA; as also are we opposed to the extension of Slavery over the recently acquired and now free Territory of New Mexico and California.

Resolved, That under existing circumstances we deem it unsafe and impolitic for the Democratic party of the fourth Congressional district to put in nomination a candidate for Congress, and that we earnestly recommend Geo. W. Julian to the support of the party.

Conversville Times.

This was a good while ago, when the people controlled the Democratic party in some measure. The masses, in all parties, are honest in their political sentiments, and a majority of Democratic voters in the North would now stand, where they did in 1849, if their leaders would but give them the truth in regard to the great issues before the country.

But corrupt and designing politicians, while steadily declaring that the "National Democracy" is the "same yesterday, to-day, and forever," have, within a few years, turned quite around, and now call on the free men of this State to follow them in an assault upon the very principles endorsed in the above resolutions. As an instance of this, read the following resolution which the Richmond Jeffersonian says was adopted by a Democratic convention held at Centreville, on the 17th day of November, 1850:

Resolved, That we recognize the existence of but one National party, that is the Democratic party, whose principles are embodied in the Cincinnati Platform—"Non-intervention by Congress with slavery in the States or Territories, or in the District of Columbia."
